

Vision, Strategy, Transformation, Impact

Our approach is all about helping you GET TO DONE. Whether it is reviewing your business technology and processes, helping you select and implement systems, bringing strategic leadership to your C-suite, or guiding you on the journey of enabling your work, we can help you meet your goals.

Services

- Strategic Consulting
- Technology Assessment
- Fractional / Interim Executive Leadership
- Change Management
- Business Process Review & Development
- Implementation

Your Mission is Important

If yours is an organization or entity that is striving to achieve positive impact on humanity and our fragile planet, we want to be there with you. Contact us today and let's talk about your big idea, and how we can work with you to make it reality.

Contact us today:
VSTI-Partners.com

Our Team

The VSTI Team has the experience to guide you, the knowledge to help you find solutions, and the know-how to help you succeed in your goals. Our team has decades of experience in business, technology, and process. We are certified in key practices of change and association management and proficient in delivering value to organizations of all sizes.

Consulting to Implementation

We work tirelessly to understand your goals, find your strengths and identify opportunities to make your organization work better, leaner, faster. We help you upgrade processes, improve information architecture, and create an operational environment that supports the mission your teams are fighting for day and night to achieve the greatest impacts.

www.VSTI-Partners.com
Info@VSTI-Partners.com

People, Process, Technology, Data

We believe technology is an enabler for the work you want to get accomplished. We also believe it can be a game changer in delivering your mission. In our services we seek to understand your systemic needs, business and process requirements, as well as your future vision and provide roadmap definitions and requirements analysis that lead you in the right direction.

Our Leadership

Malisa L. Haley, MBA, CMP - Founder and CEO

25 Years of experience partnering with C-Suite executives to define and execute strategies that transform business operations.

Led efforts to clarify strategy, optimize business processes and staff operating models, and implement systems across non-profit, commercial and federal government programs.

Recently spent 4 years as Senior Director, Strategic Planning and Operations at Internet Society delivering internal consulting initiatives, IT, annual strategic planning, data analysis and reporting.

BA in Political Science from the University of Michigan

MBA from George Mason University

Change Management Professional

Jamie L. Wood, MS - Senior Director, Business Intelligence

10+ years of experience in interpreting and analyzing data for driving business solutions.

Expert in the development of Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) to monitor business needs and reporting requirements.

Proficient in SQL, data management, database development, data manipulation, and analytics.

Adept in business operations, aligning business processes to achieve outcomes and analytics tools for effective analyses and presentation of data.

15+ years in non-profit and higher education to support Program Managers analyze the investment, assess efficiency of resource allocation, and monitor program outcomes.

www.VSTI-Partners.com
Info@VSTI-Partners.com

Todd M. Tolbert, MBA, CAE - Partner and COO/CIO

20+ years experience as a business technology and strategic leader working in multiple c-level and consulting positions.

Former Chief Digital Strategy Officer for ASIS International overseeing strategic and tactical evaluation, development, implementation, and improvement of products and services

Former Chief Administrative Officer and head of operations for the Internet Society leading membership, operations, IT, budgeting, HR, and multiple campaign initiatives over a six-year period.

BBA in Computer Info Systems from West Texas A&M University

MBA in Management from the University of Phoenix

Certified Association Executive - American Society of Association Executives

